PART I – REGULATION OF PURCHASE, POSSESSION, MANUFACTURE AND SALE OF CERTAIN FIREARMS AND AMMUNITION AND OTHER TRANSACTIONS

Purchase and Possession of certain Firearms and Ammunition

1 Penalty for purchasing or possessing firearms or ammunition without certificate

[1937/1]

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, no person shall purchase, acquire or have in his possession any firearm or ammunition to which this Part of this Act applies unless he holds a firearm certificate in force at the time.
- (2) If any person —
 - (a) purchases, acquires or has in his possession any firearm or ammunition to which this Part of this Act applies without holding a firearm certificate in force at the time, or otherwise than as authorised by such a certificate, or, in the case of ammunition, in quantities in excess of those so authorised ; or

- (b) fails to comply with any condition subject to which a firearm certificate is held by him;

he shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, for each offence under paragraph (a) be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding £1,000 or to both; and on conviction on information to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to a fine or to both; and for each offence under paragraph (b) be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding £1,000 or to both.¹

2 Grant, renewal, variation and revocation of certificates

- (1) An application for the grant of a certificate under this section shall be made in the prescribed form to the Chief Constable, and shall state such particulars as may be required by the said form.
- (2) The certificate shall be granted by the Chief Officer of Police if he is satisfied that the applicant has a good reason for purchasing, acquiring, or having in his possession the firearm or ammunition in respect of which the application is made, and can be permitted to have in his possession that firearm or ammunition without danger to the public safety or to the peace:

Provided that a certificate shall not be granted to a person whom the Chief Officer of Police has reason to believe to be prohibited by this Act from possessing a firearm to which this Part of this Act applies, or to be of intemperate habits or unsound mind, or to be for any reason unfitted to be entrusted with such a firearm.

- (3) A certificate granted under this section shall be in the prescribed form and shall specify the conditions (if any) subject to which it is held, the nature and number of the firearms to which it relates, and, as respects ammunition, the quantities authorised to be purchased and to be held at any one time thereunder.
- (4) A firearm certificate shall be granted by the Chief Officer of Police to cover triennial periods computed from the first day of April, 1948. A firearm certificate shall, unless previously revoked or cancelled continue in force from the date when it was granted or last renewed to the end of the triennial period in respect of which it was granted or last renewed, but shall be renewable for the next succeeding triennial period by the Chief Officer of Police, and so from time to time, and the foregoing provisions of this section shall apply to the renewal of a certificate as they apply to a grant of a certificate.
- (5) The Chief Officer of Police may at any time by notice in writing vary the conditions subject to which the certificate is held, except such of them as may be prescribed, and may by the notice require the holder to deliver up the certificate to him within twenty-one days from the date of the notice for the purpose of amending the conditions specified therein.

- (6) A firearm certificate may also, on the application of the holder thereof, be varied from time to time by the Chief Officer of Police.
- (7) A firearm certificate may be revoked by the Chief Officer of Police if —
 - (a) the Chief Officer is satisfied that the holder is prohibited by this Act from possessing a firearm to which this Part of this Act applies, or is of intemperate habits or unsound mind, or is otherwise unfitted to be entrusted with such a firearm; or
 - (b) the holder fails to comply with a notice under subsection (5) of this section requiring him to deliver up the certificate.
- (8) Any person aggrieved by a refusal of a Chief Officer of Police to grant him a certificate under this section or to vary or renew a firearm certificate, or by the revocation of a firearm certificate, under paragraph (a) of the last foregoing subsection,
 - (i) may appeal to the High Bailiff in accordance with so much of the provisions of the First Schedule to this Act as relates to appeals, and
 - (ii) shall be notified by the Chief Officer of Police of his right of appeal under this subsection.
- (9) In any case where a firearm certificate is revoked by a Chief Officer of Police, he shall by notice in writing require the holder to surrender the certificate, and if the holder fails to do so within twenty-one days from the date of the notice, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £200:

Provided that, where an appeal is brought against the revocation, this subsection shall not apply to that revocation unless the appeal is abandoned or dismissed, and shall in that case have effect as if for the reference to the date of the notice there were substituted a reference to the date on which the appeal was abandoned or dismissed.
- (10) If any person makes any statement which he knows to be false for the purpose of procuring, whether for himself or any other person, the grant of a certificate under this section, or the variation, or renewal of a firearm certificate, he shall for each offence be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding £1,000 or to both.²
- (11) It shall be the duty of the Chief Officer of Police by a public notice published in at least two newspapers printed and circulated in the Isle of Man to notify the holders of firearms certificates at least one month before the end of each triennial period that the firearms certificates are due for renewal.

3 Fees in respect of certificates

[1937/3]

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section and of section five of this Act, there shall be payable —
- (a) on the grant of a firearm certificate (in this section referred to as a “certificate”) such fee as may be prescribed under the Fees and Duties Act 1989; and³
 - (b) on the renewal of a certificate, or on any variation of a certificate which increases the number of firearms to which the certificate relates, or on the replacement of a certificate which has been lost or destroyed, such fee as may be prescribed under the Fees and Duties Act 1989;⁴

Provided that, where a certificate is varied as aforesaid and renewed or replaced at the same time, no fee shall be payable on the variation.

- (2) No fee shall be payable on the grant, to any responsible officer of a rifle club, miniature rifle club or cadet corps approved for the purpose by the Treasury, of a certificate in respect of firearms or ammunition to be used solely for target practice or drill by the members of the club or corps, or on the variation or renewal of a certificate so granted.⁵
- (3) No fee shall be payable on the grant, variation or renewal of a certificate if the Chief Officer of Police is satisfied that the certificate relates solely to and, in the case of a variation, will continue when varied to relate solely to —
- (a) a firearm or ammunition which the applicant requires as part of the equipment of a ship; or
 - (b) a signalling apparatus, or ammunition therefor, which the applicant requires as part of the equipment of an aircraft or aerodrome; or
 - (c) a slaughtering instrument or ammunition therefor, which the applicant requires for the purpose of the slaughter of animals.

- (a) on the grant or renewal of a certificate relating solely to a firearm which is shown to the satisfaction of the Chief Officer of Police to be kept by the applicant as a trophy of a war; or
 - (b) on any variation of a certificate the sole effect of which is to add such a firearm as aforesaid to the firearms to which the certificate relates;

if the certificate is granted, renewed or varied subject to the condition that the applicant shall not use the firearm.

section, he shall, for each offence, be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding £1,000, or to both; and on conviction on information to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to a fine or to both.¹⁰

8 Registration of firearms dealers

[1937/8]

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the Chief Officer of Police shall keep in the prescribed form a register of firearms dealers and, subject as hereinafter provided, shall enter therein the name of any person who, having or proposing to have a place of business in this Isle, applies to be registered as a firearms dealer and furnishes him with the prescribed particulars:

Provided that —

- (a) the Chief Officer of Police shall not register an applicant who is prohibited to be registered by order of a court in the Isle of Man made under section thirteen of this Act; and¹¹
- (b) the Chief Officer of Police may refuse to register an applicant, if he is satisfied that the applicant cannot be permitted to carry on business as a firearms dealer without danger to the public safety or to the peace.
- (2) On the registration of an applicant as a firearms dealer and on the renewal of a certificate of registration there shall be payable such fee as may be prescribed under the Fees and Duties Act 1989.¹²

- (a) is no longer carrying on business as a firearms dealer; or
- (b) has ceased to have a place of business in the Isle of Man; or
- (c) cannot be permitted to continue to carry on business as a firearms dealer without danger to the public safety or to the peace:

he shall cause the name of that person to be removed from the register.

- (2) If any such person as aforesaid fails to apply in the prescribed form for a renewal of a certificate of registration before the date of expiry of such certificate or fails to pay the fee prescribed as mentioned in section 8(2) the Chief Officer of Police shall by notice in writing require him to comply therewith, and, if he fails to do so within twenty-one days from the date of the notice, or within such further time as that officer may in special circumstances allow, shall cause his name to be removed from the register.¹⁴
- (3) In any case where a Chief Officer of Police causes the name of any firearms dealer to be removed from the register, he shall by notice in writing require the dealer to surrender his certificate of registration, and if the dealer fails to do so within twenty-one days from the date of the notice he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £200:

- (1) The prescribed particulars which a person applying to be registered as a firearms dealer under section eight of this Act is required to furnish shall include particulars of every place of business at which he proposes to carry on business within this Isle as a firearms dealer, and the Chief Officer of Police shall, subject as hereinafter provided, enter in the register every such place of business.
- (2) Every person registered as a firearms dealer (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) who proposes to carry on business as such at any place of business which is not entered in the register, shall notify the Chief Officer of Police and furnish him with such particulars as may be prescribed, and the officer shall, subject as hereinafter provided, enter that place of business in the register.

- (3) A Chief Officer of Police, if he is satisfied that any place of business notified to him by any person under either of the last two foregoing subsections, or any place entered as the place of business of any person in the register of firearms dealers, is a place at which that person cannot be permitted to carry on business as a firearms dealer without danger to the public safety or to the police, may refuse to enter that place of business in the register or remove it from the register, as the case may be.
- (4) Any person aggrieved by any such refusal or removal may appeal to the High Bailiff.

Provided that this subsection shall not prevent —

- (a) a person parting with the possession of a firearm or ammunition, otherwise than in pursuance of a contract of sale or hire or by way of gift or loan, to a person who shows that he is by virtue of this Act entitled to have possession of the firearm or ammunition without holding such a certificate; or

- (2) Every person who sells, lets on hire, gives or lends a firearm or ammunition to which this Part of this Act applies to any other person in the Isle of Man, other than a registered firearms dealer, shall, unless that other person shows that he is by virtue of this Act entitled to purchase or acquire the firearm or ammunition without holding a firearm certificate, comply with any instructions contained in the certificate produced, and in the case of a firearm shall, within forty-eight hours from the transaction, send by registered post notice of the transaction to the Chief Officer of Police.
- (3) No person shall undertake the repair, test or proof of a firearm or ammunition to which this Part of this Act applies for any other person in the Isle of Man, other than a registered firearms dealer as such, unless that other person produces or causes to be produced a firearm certificate authorising him to have possession of the firearm or ammunition, or shows that he is by virtue of this Act entitled to have possession of the firearm or ammunition without holding such a certificate.
- (4) If any person —
 - (a) contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section; or
 - (b) with a view to purchasing or acquiring, or procuring the repair, test or proof of, a firearm or ammunition to which this Part of this Act applies, produces a false firearm certificate or a firearm certificate in which any false entry has been made, or personates a person to whom a firearm certificate has been granted, or makes any false statement;

he shall, for each offence, be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding £1,000, or to both; and on conviction on information to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to a fine or to both.¹⁶

12 Register of transactions in firearms

[1937/12]

- (1) Every person who by way of trade or business manufactures, sells or transfers firearms or ammunition to which this Part of this Act applies shall provide and keep a register of transactions, and shall enter or cause to be entered therein the particulars set forth in the Second Schedule to this Act.
- (2) Every such entry shall be made within twenty-four hours after the transaction to which it relates took place, and, in the case of a sale or transfer, every such person as aforesaid shall at the time of the transaction require the purchaser or transferee, if not known to him, to furnish particulars sufficient for identification, and shall immediately enter the said particulars in the register.

- (3) Every such person as aforesaid shall on demand allow any officer of police, duly authorised in writing in that behalf by the Chief Officer of Police, to enter and inspect all stock in hand, and shall on request —
- (a) by any officer of police duly authorised in writing in that behalf by the Chief Officer of Police; or of the offence, or any person who was knowingly a party to the offence, shall not be registered as a firearms dealer or, if so registered, shall be liable to be removed from the register; and

- (c) that any stock in hand of the business shall be disposed of by sale or otherwise in accordance with such directions as may be contained in the order:

Provided that a person aggrieved by an order made under this section may appeal against the order in the same manner as against the conviction, and the court may, if they think fit, suspend the operation of the order pending the appeal.
