CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS (AMENDMENT) BILL 2019
1. This Bill is promoted by Mr. Ashford MHK. It amends the Children and Young Persons Act 2001 (“the 2001 Act”) to make provision about child death reviews in the same way as do sections 16M to 16O and 16Q of the Children Act 2004 (of Parliament) (inserted by the Children and Social Work Act 2017 (of Parliament).

2. Part 1 comprises clauses 1 and 2, which are introductory and will give the resulting Act its short title and provide for its commencement by an appointed day order made by the Council of Ministers.

3. Clauses 3 to 8 insert the new sections into the 2001 Act.

4. Clause 3 introduces the insertions.

5. Clause 4 inserts a new section 68A which defines the concept of the “child death review partners”.

6. Clause 5 inserts a new section 68B which provides for child death reviews. The clause provides that where a review makes recommendations to a person, the person must either comply with it or explain to the child death review partners why it proposes not to do so.

7. Clause 6 inserts a new section 68C, which deals with the supply and use of information in connection with child death reviews.

8. Clause 7 inserts a new section 68D which deals with funding and the provision of resources for the purposes of child death reviews.

9. Clause 8 empowers the child death review partners to have regard to guidance issued by the Secretary of State in England under the corresponding provisions mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Memorandum.

10. Clause 9 repeals provisions, contained in sections 8(4)(b) and 9(1) of the Safeguarding Act 2018 which will be redundant on the coming into operation of the Act resulting from this Bill.

11. An assessment of the financial impact of the changes made by the Bill has been made by the Department of Health and Social Care.

12. In the opinion of the member moving the Bill, its provisions are compatible with the Convention rights within the meaning of the Human Rights Act 2001.
