(a) until the commencement of the licence; or

(b) if the application is refused, until the time for appealing to the Tribunal against the refusal has expired and, if such an appeal is duly brought, until the time when it is disposed of. 1

1 [EDITORIAL NOTE: See endnote to section 14 for the temporal effect of this Act.]
(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) above shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £5,000.

2 Grant of licences, etc
The Schedule to this Act shall have effect in relation to the granting of licences under this Act and to the other matters specified in that Schedule.

3 Revocation of licences
[P1973/35/3]
(1) A licence under this Act may be revoked by the licensing authority on any of the grounds specified in paragraph 5 of the Schedule to this Act.

(2) The licensing authority shall not act under subsection (1) above unless it has given not less than one month’s notice in writing to the holder of the licence of the grounds on which it proposes to revoke the licence and, if the holder makes representations in writing to the licensing authority within one month of the date on which the notice is given or such longer period as the licensing authority may allow, the licensing authority shall have regard to those representations.

(3) On deciding to act under subsection (1) above, the licensing authority shall give notice in writing of its decision to the holder of the licence stating the grounds for the revocation.

(4) The revocation of a licence by the licensing authority shall take place —

(b) on the withdrawal of the appeal to the Tribunal; or³
(c) on the expiration of the time, subsequent to the determination of the appeal by the Tribunal, within which an appeal to the Staff of Government Division may be duly made,⁴

(b) revoking a licence of which he is the holder, may appeal, in the prescribed manner giving the prescribed particulars, to the Tribunal.⁵

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) above against any decision shall be brought within twenty-one days of the date on which notice of the decision was given in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(3) Before the determination of an appeal, the Tribunal shall ask the appellant and the licensing authority whether they wish to appear and be heard on the appeal and —

(a) the appeal may be determined without a hearing of the parties if both of them express a wish not to appear and be heard as aforesaid;

(b) the Tribunal shall, if either of the parties expresses a wish to appear and be heard, afford to both of them an opportunity of doing so.

(4) The Tribunal shall state in writing the reasons for its determination and may give such directions as it considers appropriate to give effect to its determination, and, subject to subsection (5) below, any such determination shall be final.

(5) An appeal shall lie, in accordance with rules of court, to the Staff of Government Division from a determination of the Tribunal under this section where that determination involves a question of law.
