ANTTI-TERRORISM AND CRIME ACT 2003

Received Royal Assent: 20 May 2003
Passed: 20 May 2003
Commenced: See endnotes

AN ACT to repeal and replace the Prevention of Terrorism Act 1990 and to make further provision about terrorism and criminal justice.

PART I – INTRODUCTORY

1 Terrorism: interpretation

In this Act “terrorism” means the use or threat of action where —

(a) the action falls within subsection (2),

(b) the use or threat is designed to influence the government or an international organisation or to intimidate the public or a section of the public, and¹

(c) the use or threat is made for the purpose of advancing a political, religious, racial or ideological cause.²

Action falls within this subsection if it —

(a) involves serious violence against a person,

(b) involves serious damage to property,

(c) endangers a person’s life, other than that of the person committing the action,

(d) creates a serious risk to the health or safety of the public or a section of the public;

(e) is designed seriously to interfere with or seriously to disrupt an electronic system;

(f) constitutes a Convention offence; or³

(g) would constitute a Convention offence if done in the Island.⁴
The use or threat of action falling within subsection (2) which involves the use of firearms or explosives is terrorism whether or not subsection (1)(b) is satisfied.

In this section —
(a) “action” includes action outside the Island;
(b) a reference to any person or to property is a reference to any person, or to property, wherever situated;
(c) a reference to the public includes a reference to the public of a country or territory other than the Island; and
(d) “the government” means the government of the Island, of the United Kingdom, of a part of the United Kingdom or of any other country or territory.

In this Act a reference to action taken for the purposes of terrorism includes a reference to action taken for the benefit of a proscribed organisation.

In this Act “act of terrorism” includes anything constituting an action taken for the purposes of terrorism.

For the purposes of this Act an offence has a terrorist connection if the offence —
(a) is, or takes place in the course of, an act of terrorism; or
(b) is committed for the purposes of terrorism.

PART II – PROSCRIBED ORGANISATIONS

Proscription

2 Proscribed organisations

For the purposes of this Act an organisation is proscribed if —

(a) it is listed in Schedule 2 to the Terrorism Act 2000 (an Act of Parliament) (in this Act referred to as the “UK Act”), or
(b) it operates under the same name as an organisation listed in that Schedule.

Subsection (1)(b) shall not apply in relation to an organisation listed in Schedule 2 to the UK Act if its entry is the subject of a note in that Schedule.

The Department shall maintain a list of the organisations that are for the time being included in Schedule 2 to the UK Act.

The Department shall —
(a) as soon as practicable after the commencement of this Part cause a copy of the list to be published in two newspapers published and circulating in the Island;

(b) as soon as practicable after any amendment is made to Schedule 2 to the UK Act cause a copy of the amended list to be published in two newspapers published and circulating in the Island; and

(c) make arrangements for copies of the list to be provided without charge to members of the public on request.

(5) Where an order made by the Secretary of State under section 3(6) of the UK Act provides for a name to be treated as another name for an organisation, this Act has effect in relation to acts occurring while —

(a) the order is in force;

(b) the organisation continues to be listed in Schedule 2 to the UK Act, as if the organisation were listed in that Schedule under the other name, as well as under the name specified in the Schedule.7

(6) Nothing in subsection (5) prevents any liability from being established in any proceedings by proof that an organisation is the same as an organisation listed in Schedule 2 to the UK Act, even though it is or was operating under a name specified neither in that Schedule nor in an order made by the Secretary of State under section 3(6) of the UK Act.8

18W References to person being “dealt with” for an offence

[\text{P2008/28/61}]

(1) References in this Part to a person’s being dealt with for or in respect of an offence are to his or her being sentenced, or made subject to a hospital order, in respect of the offence.

References in this Part to an offence being dealt with are to a person being dealt with in respect of the offence.

(2) Subject to the following provisions of this section, references in this Part to the time at which a person is dealt with for an offence are to the time at which they are first dealt with by a court of summary jurisdiction or the Court of General Gaol Delivery.

This is referred to below as “the original decision”.

(3) Where the original decision is varied (on appeal or otherwise), then —

(a) if the result is that the conditions for application of the notification requirements to a person in respect of an offence cease to be met (and paragraph (c) does not apply), the notification requirements are treated as never having applied to that person in respect of that offence;

(b) if the result is that the conditions for application of the notification requirements to a person in respect of an offence are met where they were not previously met (and paragraph (c) does not apply) —

(i) the person is treated as dealt with for the offence when the variation takes place; and

(ii) the notification requirements apply accordingly;

(c) if —

(i) a conviction of, or finding in relation to, a different offence is substituted; and

(ii) the conditions for application of the notification requirements were met in respect of the original offence and are also met in respect of the substituted offence, the person is treated as if he or she had been dealt with for the substituted offence at the time of the original decision;

(d) if the sentence is varied so as to become one by virtue of which the notification requirements would apply for a different period, the period for which those requirements apply shall be determined as if the sentence as varied had been imposed at the time of the original decision;

(e) in any other case, the variation is disregarded.

(4) For the purposes of —

(a) section 18E(a) (persons subject to notification requirements: age when dealt with for offence);

(b) section 18G(2) (effect of order reducing term or period triggering notification requirements);

(c) section 18M(4)(b) (period for which notification requirements apply: ending of period resulting from finding of disability etc where person subsequently tried); and

(d) paragraph 2(3) of Schedule 4A (conditions for making travel restriction order: behaviour since offence dealt with), a person is treated as dealt with at the time of the original decision and any subsequent variation of the decision is disregarded.

(5) For the purposes of —

(a) section 18D (application of Part to offences dealt with before commencement); and

(b) paragraph 2(4) of Schedule 4A (conditions for making travel restriction order where offence dealt with before commencement), a person is dealt with for an offence before the commencement of this Part if the time of the original decision falls before the commencement of this Part.

Where in such a case subsection (3) applies for the purposes of any provision of this Part, that subsection has effect as if the provisions of this Part had been in force at all material times.

(6) In section 18H(5) (adaptation of initial notification requirements in case of offence dealt with before commencement) —

(a) the reference in the opening words to an offence dealt with before the commencement of this Part is to an offence where the time of the original decision falls before the commencement of this Part; and

(b) the reference in the closing words to when the offence is dealt with has the same meaning as in subsection (1) of that section.

(7) References in this section to the variation of a decision include any proceedings by which the decision is altered, set aside or quashed, or in which a further decision is come to following the setting aside or quashing of the decision.\textsuperscript{55}

(a) consists of information that is stored in electronic form; and
(b) is accessible from the premises being searched,

(3)  If, after a document has been removed under section 32A, it is discovered that —
(a)  it is an item subject to legal privilege; or
(b)  it has an item subject to legal privilege comprised in it, the document must be returned forthwith.

(4)  Subsection (3)(b) does not require the return of a document if it is not reasonably practicable for the item subject to legal privilege to be separated from the rest of the document without prejudicing any use of the rest of the document that would be lawful if it were subsequently seized.

(5)  Where an item subject to legal privilege is removed under subsection (2) or retained under subsection (4), it must not be examined or put to any other use except to the extent necessary for facilitating the examination of the rest of the document.

(f) state the date and time when the document was removed.

(4) If, in a case where the document was found in the course of a search of a person, the constable does not know the person’s name, the record must include a description of the person.

(5) If, in a case where the document was found in the course of a search of any premises, the constable does not know the name of a person mentioned in subsection (3)(e) but is able to provide a description of that person, the record must include such a description.

(6) The record must identify the constable by reference to the constable’s police number.

      expeditiously; and
   (b) it is necessary to continue the examination for the purpose of ascertaining whether the document is one that may be seized.

examination.65

47B Dissemination of terrorist publications

[P2006/11/2]

(1) A person commits an offence if the person engages in conduct falling within subsection (2) and, at the time of doing so, intends to incite the commission, preparation or instigation of acts of terrorism or the provision of assistance in the commission or preparation of such acts.

(2) For the purposes of this section a person engages in conduct falling within this subsection if he or she —

(a) distributes or circulates a terrorism publication;
(b) gives, sells or lends such a publication;
(c) offers such a publication for sale or loan;

(e) transmits the contents of such a publication electronically; or
(f) has such a publication in his or her possession with a view to its becoming the subject of conduct falling within any of paragraphs (a) to (e).

(3) For the purposes of this section a publication is a terrorism publication, in relation to conduct falling within subsection (2), if matter contained in it is likely to be understood, by some or all of the persons to whom it is or may become available as a consequence of that conduct, as incitement of the commission, preparation or instigation of acts of terrorism.

(4) For the purposes of this section the question whether a publication is a terrorist publication in relation to particular conduct must be determined —
   (a) as at the time of that conduct; and
   (b) having regard both to the contents of the publication as a whole and to the circumstances in which that conduct occurs.

(5) In subsection (1) references to the effect of a person’s conduct in relation to a terrorism publication include references to an effect of the publication on one or more persons to whom it is or may become available as a consequence of that conduct.

(6) It is irrelevant for the purposes of this section whether anything mentioned in subsections (1) to (3) is in relation to the commission, preparation or instigation of one or more particular acts of terrorism, or acts of terrorism of a particular description or of acts of terrorism generally.

(7) For the purposes of this section it is also irrelevant, in relation to matter contained in any article whether any person —
   (a) is in fact induced by that matter to commit, prepare or instigate acts of terrorism; or
   (b) in fact makes use of it in the commission or preparation of such acts.

(8) In proceedings for an offence under this section against a person in respect of conduct to which subsection (9) applies, it is a defence for the person to show —
   (a) that the matter by reference to which the publication in question was a terrorist publication neither expressed his or her views nor had his or her endorsement (whether by virtue of section 47C or otherwise);

(b) that it was clear, in all the circumstances of the conduct, that that matter did not express his or her views and (apart from the possibility of his or her having been given and failed to comply with a notice under subsection (3) of that section) did not have his or her endorsement; or

(c) that the statement is a proportionate exercise of the right to freedom of expression in a democratic society.

(9) This subsection applies to the conduct of a person to the extent that —

(a) the publication to which his or her conduct related contained matter by reference to which it was a terrorist publication by virtue of subsection (3); and

(b) the person is not proved to have engaged in that conduct with the intention specified in subsection (1).

(10) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable —

(a) on conviction on information, to custody for not more than 7 years, a fine, or both;

(a) a constable has given him or her a notice under subsection (3);
(b) that time falls more than 2 working days after the day on which the notice was given; and
(c) the relevant person has failed, without reasonable excuse, to comply with the notice.

(3) A notice under this subsection is a notice which —
(a) declares that, in the opinion of the constable giving it, the statement or the article or record is unlawfully terrorism-related;
(b) requires the relevant person to secure that the statement or the article or record, so far as it is so related, is not available to the public or is modified so as no longer to be so related;
(c) warns the relevant person that a failure to comply with the notice within 2 working days will result in the statement, or the article or record, being regarded as having his or her endorsement; and
(d) explains how, under subsection (4), he or she may become liable by virtue of the notice if the statement, or the article or record, becomes available to the public after he or she has complied with the notice.

(4) Where —
(a) a notice under subsection (3) has been given to the relevant person in respect of a statement, or an article or record, and the relevant person has complied with it; but
(b) the relevant person subsequently publishes or causes to be published a statement which is, or is for all practical purposes, the same or to the same effect as the statement to which the notice related, or to matter contained in the article or record to which it related, (a “repeat statement”), the requirements of subsection (2)(a) to (c) shall be regarded as satisfied in the case of the repeat statement in relation to the times of its subsequent publication by the relevant person.

(5) In proceedings against a person for an offence under section 47A or 47B the requirements of subsection (2)(a) to (c) are not, in his or her case, to be regarded as satisfied in relation to any time by virtue of subsection (4) if the person shows that he or she —
(a) has, before that time, taken every step he or she reasonably could to prevent a repeat statement from becoming available to the public and to ascertain whether it does; and
(b) was, at that time, a person to whom subsection (6) applied.

(6) This subsection applies to a person at any time when he or she —
(a) is not aware of the publication of the repeat statement; or having become aware of its publication, has taken every step that he or she reasonably could to secure that it either ceased to be available to the public or was modified as mentioned in subsection (3)(b).

(7) For the purposes of this section a statement or an article or record is unlawfully terrorism-related if it constitutes, or if matter contained in the article or record constitutes —

(a) something that is likely to be understood, by any one or more of the persons to whom it has or may become available, as incitement of the commission, preparation or instigation of acts of terrorism or Convention offences; or

(b) information which —

(i) is likely to be useful to any one or more of those persons in the commission or preparation of such acts; and

SCHEDULE 3

FORFEITURE OF TERRORIST CASH

Section 17

[P2001/24/1 and Sch.1]

PART 1 – INTRODUCTORY

Terrorist cash

1. (1) This Schedule applies to cash ("terrorist cash") which —
   (a) is intended to be used for the purposes of terrorism,
   (b) consists of resources of an organisation which is a proscribed organisation, or
   (c) is property earmarked as terrorist property.

   (2) "Cash" means —
(a) coins and notes in any currency,
(b) postal orders,
(c) cheques of any kind, including travellers’ cheques,
(d) bankers’ drafts,
(e) bearer bonds and bearer shares,

found at any place in the Island.

(3) Cash also includes any kind of monetary instrument which is found at any place in the Island, if the instrument is specified by the Treasury by order.

(4) The powers conferred by this Schedule are exercisable in relation to any cash whether or not any proceedings have been brought for an offence in connection with the cash.

PART 2 – SEIZURE AND DETENTION

Seizure of cash

2. (1) An authorised officer may seize any cash if he has reasonable grounds for suspecting that it is terrorist cash.

(2) An authorised officer may also seize cash part of which he has reasonable grounds for suspecting to be terrorist cash if it is not reasonably practicable to seize only that part.

Detention of seized cash

3. (1) While the authorised officer continues to have reasonable grounds for his suspicion, cash seized under this Schedule may be detained initially for a period of 48 hours.

(1A) In determining the period of 48 hours specified in sub-paragraph (1) there shall be disregarded —
   (a) any Saturday or Sunday;
   (b) Christmas Day;
   (c) Good Friday;
   (d) any day that is a bank holiday under the Bank Holidays Act 1989.¹⁹²

(2) The period for which the cash or any part of it may be detained may be extended by an order made by the High Bailiff; but the order may not authorise the detention of any of the cash —
   (a) beyond the end of the period of 3 months beginning with the date of the order,
   (b) in the case of any further order under this paragraph, beyond the end of the period of 2 years beginning with the date of the first order.
(3) An order under sub-paragraph (2) must provide for notice to be given to persons affected by it.

(4) An application for an order under sub-paragraph (2) may be made by the Treasury or an authorised officer, and the High Bailiff may make the order if satisfied, in relation to any cash to be further detained, that one of the following conditions is met.

(5) The first condition is that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the cash is intended to be used for the purposes of terrorism and that either —

(a) its continued detention is justified while its intended use is further investigated or consideration is given to bringing (in the Island or elsewhere) proceedings against any person for an offence with which the cash is connected, or

(b) proceedings against any person for an offence with which the cash is connected have been started and have not been concluded.

(6) The second condition is that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the cash consists of resources of a proscribed organisation and that either —

(a) its continued detention is justified while investigation is made into whether or not it consists of such resources or consideration is given to bringing (in the Island or elsewhere) proceedings against any person for an offence with which the cash is connected, or

(b) proceedings against any person for an offence with which the cash is connected have been started and have not been concluded.

(7) The third condition is that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the cash is property earmarked as terrorist property and that either —

(a) its continued detention is justified while its derivation is further investigated or consideration is given to bringing (in the Island or elsewhere) proceedings against any person for an offence with which the cash is connected, or

(b) proceedings against any person for an offence with which the cash is connected have been started and have not been concluded.

Payment of detained cash into an account

4. (1) If cash is detained under this Schedule for more than 48 hours (determined in accordance with paragraph 3(1A)), it is to be held in an interest-bearing account and the interest accruing on it is to be added to it on its forfeiture or release.193

(2) In the case of cash seized under paragraph 2(2), the authorised officer must, on paying it into the account, release so much of the cash then held in the account as is not attributable to terrorist cash.

(3) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply if the cash is required as evidence of an offence or evidence in proceedings under this Schedule.
Release of detained cash

5. (1) This paragraph applies while any cash is detained under this Schedule.

(2) The High Bailiff may direct the release of the whole or any part of the cash if satisfied, on an application by the person from whom it was seized, that the conditions in paragraph 3 for the detention of cash are no longer met in relation to the cash to be released.

(3) An authorised officer may, after notifying the High Bailiff, release the whole or any part of the cash if satisfied that the detention of the cash to be released is no longer justified.

(4) But cash is not to be released —
   (a) if an application is made for its forfeiture under paragraph 6, or for its release under paragraph 9, until any proceedings in pursuance of the application (including any proceedings on appeal) are concluded,
   (b) if (in the Island or elsewhere) proceedings are started against any person for an offence with which the cash is connected, until those proceedings are concluded.

PART 3 – FORFEITURE

Forfeiture

6. (1) While cash is detained under this Schedule, an application for the forfeiture of the whole or any part of it may be made to the High Bailiff by the Treasury or an authorised officer.

(2) The High Bailiff may order the forfeiture of the cash or any part of it if satisfied that the cash or part is terrorist cash.

(3) In the case of property earmarked as terrorist property which belongs to joint tenants one of whom is an excepted joint owner, the order may not apply to so much of it as the High Bailiff thinks is attributable to the excepted joint owner’s share.

(4) An excepted joint owner is a joint tenant who obtained the property in circumstances in which it would not (as against him) be earmarked; and references to his share of the earmarked property are to so much of the property as would have been his if the joint tenancy had been severed.

Appeal against decision in forfeiture proceedings

7. (1) A party to proceedings for an order under paragraph 6 (“a forfeiture order”) who is aggrieved by a forfeiture order made in the proceedings or by the decision of the court not to make a forfeiture order may appeal to the High Court.
(2) The appeal must be brought before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the date on which the order is made or, as the case may be, the decision is given.

This is subject to paragraph 7A (extended time for appealing in certain cases of deproscription).

(3) The High Court may make any order that appears to it to be appropriate.

(4) If an appeal against a forfeiture order is upheld, the High Court may order the release of the cash. 195

Extended time for appealing in certain cases where deproscription order made 196

7A. (1) This paragraph applies where —

(a) a successful application for a forfeiture order relies (wholly or partly) on the fact that an organisation is proscribed;

(b) an application under section 4 of the UK Act for a deproscription order in respect of the organisation is refused by the Secretary of State;

(c) the forfeited cash is seized under this Schedule on or after the date of the refusal of that application;

(d) an appeal against that refusal is allowed under section 5 of that Act;

(e) a deproscription order is made accordingly; and

(f) if the order is made in reliance on section 123(5) of that Act, a resolution is passed by each House of Parliament under section 123(5)(b).

(2) Where this paragraph applies, an appeal under paragraph 7 against the forfeiture order may be brought at any time before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the date on which the deproscription order comes into force.

(3) In this paragraph a “deproscription order” means an order under section 3(3)(b) or (8) of the UK Act. 197

Application of forfeited cash

8. Cash forfeited under this Schedule, and any accrued interest on it is to be paid into the General Revenue of the Island but it is not to be paid in —

(a) before the end of the period within which an appeal under paragraph 7 may be made, or

(b) if a person appeals under that paragraph, before the appeal is determined or otherwise disposed of.
PART 4 – MISCELLANEOUS

Victims

9. (1) A person who claims that any cash detained under this Schedule, or any part of it, belongs to him may apply to High Bailiff for the cash or part to be released to him.

(2) The application may be made in the course of proceedings under paragraph 3 or 6 or at any other time.

(3) If it appears to the High Bailiff that —
   (a) the applicant was deprived of the cash claimed, or of property which it represents, by criminal conduct,
   (b) the property he was deprived of was not, immediately before he was deprived of it, property obtained by or in return for criminal conduct and nor did it then represent such property, and
   (c) the cash claimed belongs to him, the High Bailiff must order the cash to be released to the applicant.

Compensation

10. (1) If no forfeiture order is made in respect of any cash detained under this Schedule, the person to whom the cash belongs or from whom it was seized may make an application to the High Bailiff for compensation.

(2) If, for any period after the initial detention of the cash for 48 hours (determined in accordance with paragraph 3(1A)), the cash was not held in an interest-bearing account while detained, the High Bailiff may order an amount of compensation to be paid to the applicant.198

(3) The amount of compensation to be paid under sub-paragraph (2) is the amount the High Bailiff thinks would have been earned in interest in the period in question if the cash had been held in an interest-bearing account.

(4) If the High Bailiff is satisfied that, taking account of any interest to be paid under this Schedule or any amount to be paid under sub-paragraph (2), the applicant has suffered loss as a result of the detention of the cash and that the circumstances are exceptional, the High Bailiff may order compensation (or additional compensation) to be paid to him.

(5) The amount of compensation to be paid under sub-paragraph (4) is the amount the High Bailiff thinks reasonable, having regard to the loss suffered and any other relevant circumstances.

(6) The compensation is to be paid by the Treasury out of the General Revenue of the Island.

(7) If a forfeiture order is made in respect only of a part of any cash detained under this Schedule, this paragraph has effect in relation to the other part.
(8) This paragraph does not apply if the High Bailiff makes an order under paragraph 9.

PART 5 – PROPERTY EARMARKED AS TERRORIST PROPERTY

Property obtained through terrorism

11. (1) A person obtains property through terrorism if he obtains property by or in return for acts of terrorism, or acts carried out for the purposes of terrorism.

(2) In deciding whether any property was obtained through terrorism —

(a) it is immaterial whether or not any money, goods or services were provided in order to put the person in question in a position to carry out the acts,

(b) it is not necessary to show that the act was of a particular kind if it is shown that the property was obtained through acts of one of a number of kinds, each of which would have been an act of terrorism, or an act carried out for the purposes of terrorism.

Property earmarked as terrorist property

12. (1) Property obtained through terrorism is earmarked as terrorist property.

(2) But if property obtained through terrorism has been disposed of (since it was so obtained), it is earmarked as terrorist property only if it is held by a person into whose hands it may be followed.

(3) Earmarked property may be followed into the hands of a person obtaining it on a disposal by —

(a) the person who obtained the property through terrorism, or

(b) a person into whose hands it may (by virtue of this sub-paragraph) be followed.

Tracing property

13. (1) Where property obtained through terrorism (“the original property”) is or has been earmarked as terrorist property, property which represents the original property is also earmarked.

(2) If a person enters into a transaction by which —

(a) he disposes of the earmarked property, whether the original property or property which (by virtue of this Part) represents the original property, and

(b) he obtains other property in place of it, the other property represents the original property.

(3) If a person disposes of earmarked property which represents the original property, the property may be followed into the hands of the person who obtains it (and it continues to represent the original property).

Mixing property

14. (1) Sub-paragraph (2) applies if a person’s property which is earmarked as terrorist property is mixed with other property (whether his property or another’s).

(2) The portion of the mixed property which is attributable to the property earmarked as terrorist property represents the property obtained through terrorism.

(3) Property earmarked as terrorist property is mixed with other property if (for example) it is used —

(a) to increase funds held in a bank account,
(b) in part payment for the acquisition of an asset,
(c) for the restoration or improvement of land,
(d) by a person holding a leasehold interest in the property to acquire the freehold.

Accruing profits

15. (1) This paragraph applies where a person who has property earmarked as terrorist property obtains further property consisting of profits accruing in respect of the earmarked property.

(2) The further property is to be treated as representing the property obtained through terrorism.

General exceptions

16. (1) If —

(a) a person disposes of property earmarked as terrorist property, and
(b) the person who obtains it on the disposal does so in good faith, for value and without notice that it was earmarked, the property may not be followed into that person’s hands and, accordingly, it ceases to be earmarked.

(2) If —

(a) in pursuance of a judgment in civil proceedings (whether in the Island or elsewhere), the defendant makes a payment to the claimant or the claimant otherwise obtains property from the defendant,
(b) the claimant’s claim is based on the defendant’s criminal conduct, and
(c) apart from this sub-paragraph, the sum received, or the property obtained, by the claimant would be earmarked as terrorist property, the property ceases to be earmarked.

(3) If —

(a) a payment is made to a person in pursuance of a compensation order under Schedule 6 to the Criminal Law Act 1981, and

(b) apart from this sub-paragraph, the sum received would be earmarked as terrorist property, the property ceases to be earmarked.

(4) If —

(a) a payment is made to a person in pursuance of a restitution order under section 30 of the Theft Act 1981 or a person otherwise obtains any property in pursuance of such an order, and

(b) apart from this sub-paragraph, the sum received, or the property obtained, would be earmarked as terrorist property, the property ceases to be earmarked.

(5) If —

(a) in pursuance of an order made by the court under section 20(4) of the Financial Services Act 2008, an amount is paid to or distributed among any persons in accordance with the court’s directions, and

(b) apart from this sub-paragraph, the sum received by them would be earmarked as terrorist property,

the property ceases to be earmarked.

(6) If —

(a) in pursuance of an order made by the court under section 39(3) of the Insurance Act 2008 (restitution orders), an amount is paid to or distributed among any persons in accordance with the court’s directions, and

(b) apart from this sub-paragraph, the sum received by them would be earmarked as terrorist property,

the property ceases to be earmarked.

(7) Where —

(a) a person enters into a transaction to which paragraph 13(2) applies, and

(b) the disposal is one to which sub-paragraph (1) applies, this paragraph does not affect the question whether (by virtue of paragraph 13(2)) any property obtained on the transaction in place of the property disposed of is earmarked.
