The Governor in Council, by Order¹, makes the following Regulations under section 4 of the Emergency Powers Act 1936.

1 Title

These Regulations are the Emergency Powers (Coronavirus) (Sale or Supply of Medicinal Products and Appliances) Regulations 2020.

2 Commencement

These Regulations come into operation immediately after they are made².

3 Interpretation

In these Regulations —

“appliance” means an appliance which is a prescribed appliance within the meaning of section 8(1) of the National Health Service Act 2001;

“Coronavirus” means severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2);

“the Coronavirus Proclamation period” means the period for which the following proclamations are in operation —

¹ Section 4(1) specifies that “Where a proclamation of emergency has been made, and so long as such proclamation is in force, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, by Order, to make regulations ...”.

² By virtue of section 4(2) of the Emergency Powers Act 1936, these Regulations made by Order of the Governor in Council must be laid before Tynwald within 7 days of being made and continue in force beyond 7 days of being so laid if Tynwald passes a resolution to that effect.

- (a) the Proclamation of Emergency dated 16 March 2020³; and
- (b) all subsequent consecutive Proclamations of Emergency that relate to the pandemic of Coronavirus (also known as COVID-19);²

“medicinal product” has the meaning given in the Medicines Act 2003;

“medicines legislation” means the Misuse of Drugs Act 1976, the National Health Service Act 2001 and the Medicines Act 2003 and any legislation made under those Acts; and “Protocol” means the Protocol issued, from time to time, under Regulation 5(1).

4 General

These Regulations provide for the sale or supply of medicinal products and appliances during the Coronavirus Proclamation period.

5 Protocol for sale or supply of medicinal products

- (1) During the Coronavirus Proclamation period, the Department of Health and Social Care may, from time to time, issue a written Protocol detailing the circumstances in which medicinal products and appliances may be sold or supplied by a person otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of the medicines legislation.

Tynwald procedure – laying only.

- (2) The sale or supply by a person of any medicinal product or appliance in accordance with the terms of the Protocol will not –
 - (a) breach any provision of the medicines legislation; or
 - (b) constitute an offence under the medicines legislation.
